(HOME DEPARTMENT).

No. 46665—Ptl. 16-49-2. The following details regarding the "The Bawa Bachittar Singh Prize Essay, 1950" are published for general information :—

1. Bawa Bachittar Singh, the Vice-President of the Delhi Municipal Committee, has very kindly donated Rs. 750 as a prize or prizes, to be awarded to the best essay or essays, written by members of the Armed Forces including those of the Indian State Forces, Civil Services, British Officers, serving in India, Retired Officers and Research Scholars and Staffs of recognized Indian Universities, on a subject relating to defence.

SUBJECT.

2. It has been decided that the subject for the Essay will be :—

"India's declared policy in regard to her relations with foreign countries is to strive for world peace, to support the United Nations, to avoid all entanglement with Power Blocks and to use her good offices for the liberation of dependent peoples.

Her geographical position is of immense strategic importance.

She is greatly dependent for some years upon imports of certain main commodities such as fuel, machinery, munitions, food.

Taking account of these factors, develop your recommendation as to the most suitable balance of Defence Forces in peace time, for her protection in War."

RULES.

3. The competition is open to all members of the Armed Forces including those of the Indian State Forces, Civil Services, British Officers serving in India, Retired Officers and Research Scholars and Staffs of recognized Indian Universities. It will be conducted by the United Service Institution of India.

4. All essays must be typewritten and submitted in triplicate. They should not exceed 5,000 words, exclusive of tables.

5. Care should be taken to avoid confidential matter. When a reference is made to any work, the title of such work must be quoted.

6. The essays must be strictly anonymous and must be under the pseudonyms of the competitors. They must be accompanied by a sealed envelope with the pseudonym written on the outside and the name of the competitor inside.

7. All essays must be sent by registered post, addressed to the Secretary, the United Service Institution of India, Simla, so as to reach him by the 15th February 1950.

8. The essays will be adjudicated on their general merits by three judges chosen by the Council of the Institution. The expression of views which do not conform strictly to generally accepted opinions will not necessarily be considered to detract from their value.

9. There will be two prizes—a first prize of Rs. 500 and a second prize of Rs. 250. These will be awarded to the writers of the best and the second-best essays, as adjudicated by the judges. The names of the successful competitors will be published in July 1950 number of the Journal of the Institution. If in the opinion of the judges the standard of the essays submitted is not high enough to justify the awards, no prize will be awarded.

10. Essays will become the property of the Ministry of Defence absolutely and authors will not be at liberty to make any use whatsoever of their essays without the concurrence of the Ministry.

11. Official sanction will be obtained in the case of any essay submitted by a Serving Officer, before it is published,
